

Armenian Atrocities and Genocide in Other Towns of Anatolia

Apart from the above-mentioned places, the Armenians arming themselves organized armed bands, transformed schools and churches into arsenals, betrayed the Ottoman state under the tolerant and equitable rule of which they lived in peace and prosperity, massacred the innocent and defenceless Turkish people and committed unimaginable atrocities in such places as Ankara, Adana, Urfa, Izmit, Adapazari, Bursa, Hatay, Izmir, İstanbul, Maraş, Antep and Halep. Their atrocities and genocide will remain in history as a permanent painting of disgrace.
